HEART OF JESUS CATHOLIC CHURCH MARONITE RITE

The Maronite Church is an Eastern Rite of the Catholic Church, under the jurisdiction of the Pope, which dates back to the early Christians of Antioch (Syria) where Jesus' followers "were called Christians for the first time" (Acts 11:26). As part of the Roman Catholic Church, the Maronites profess the same Faith, believe in the same Dogmatic and Moral teachings, and celebrate the same seven Sacraments. The actual name "Maronite" is taken from the name of Saint Maron, a priest and hermit who died around the year 410 A.D. The United States is home to two Maronite Eparchies (Dioceses).
