Schedule of Activities:

9:00-9:15 *Registration and Breakfast

- Women sign in and fill out name tags and, if desired, bless themselves with Holy Water. They also pick up the brochure for this event and any other flyers that are on the resource table. They may also place prayer intentions in the intention basket if one is provided.
- Suggested breakfast items: Coffee, tea, water, muffins, bagels, fruit, etc. Potluck is suggested.

9:15-9:30 *Opening Song/Welcome/Theme/Grace/Opening Prayer

- Song: Ask the women to refer to the brochures for the lyrics to the Women of Grace song.
- Welcome: Welcome the women and thank them for taking the time out of their busy schedule to come and join in the sacred sisterhood during this Morning of Grace
- Instructions: “Before we begin our program, we have a few housekeeping details...”
Give location of the bathrooms, silence all cell phones and, “please remain seated during presentations to minimize distractions for those around you and for the speaker.”
- Note to Facilitators: You might like to use this technique to quiet the room. It is a good idea to practice this at the beginning of the morning.
- “I will raise my hand when silence is needed. When you see me raise my hand, please be silent and raise your hand too so that the room will become quiet very quickly.”

Note to facilitators:

At this point, you may choose to read the announcements before you begin the program instead of at the end of the program. You can remind them at the end of the program to check the resource table for more information.

As we begin this Morning of Grace, let us call upon St. Michael to protect us and our families.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Theme: Saint Edith Stein (Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross) models for us her love of God and neighbor through her disposition of openness, persevering spirit and search for truth.

Grace: I pray for the grace to have the disposition of openness to surrender my will to God in all circumstances.

(If you choose, you can share that grace is the “free and undeserved help that God gives us” out of His abundant love. Catechism of the Catholic Church references 1996-2000.)

As we pray this 4th decade of the Joyful Mysteries, the Presentation... ..let us ponder...Our Blessed Mother exemplifies how to conform our will to the will of God. What virtue do I need to acquire to conform my will to the will of God?

All pray the 4th Joyful Mystery while listening to: Praying the Rosary with St. Therese of Lisieux CD. (This CD is recommended as there is a meditation before each Hail Mary that will allow the women to be receptive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit.)

At the end of the decade, pray... “Mary, Our Lady of Victory, pray for us.”

9:30-10:00 Teaching: DVD/Video St. Edith Stein, Woman for our Times (part 2 of 2 parts - beginning at 29:43)

# 14248 <https://www.womenofgrace.com/search?term=14248> -available in library at Women of Grace free for exclusive members or for purchase at EWTN show air date March 18, 2002. Please allow ten business days for delivery.

10:00-10:15 Testimony

- Introduce speaker and give brief biography: “Please refer to your brochure for the prayer for ourselves and our speaker. Let us welcome the Holy Spirit into our hearts and into the heart of our guest speaker as we pray...”

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of thy faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Thy love. Send forth Thy Spirit and they shall be created and Thou shall renew the face of the earth.

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

Testimony: “Ladies, after hearing this beautiful testimony we encourage you to prayerfully consider sharing your testimony in the future.”

10:15-10:20 Reflection Time

- “Now please refer to the questions in your brochure for reflection. I will read them aloud as you read them to yourselves.”

Reflection Questions:

1. Gertrud von le Fort said that Mary triumphed not with the sword in her hand but with a sword in her heart. As spiritual mothers, following Mary’s example, with our “pierced hearts” how can we serve others and bring them closer to Jesus?
2. In the DVD, Diane stated that contemplative Carmelite monks and nuns create a “carmel” within themselves to hold up the world through unceasing prayer, Adoration and the Holy Mass. As busy women, how can we also create a “carmel” within ourselves? Our families?

- Play Ave Maria – violin and piano instrumental (Schubert)
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IIuFZhn8tlQ> – instrumental

- “Take a few minutes to reflect on these questions and ‘incline the ear of your heart’ (Proverbs 4:20). You are welcome to close your eyes as the music plays if you wish.”

10:20-10:45 *Group Sharing

- Instructions :“Before we break into small groups, remember just as in the Women of Grace® Foundational Study discussion time the discussion is Confidential. Please use the questions from the brochure. Share whatever you feel comfortable sharing and allow the Holy Spirit to guide your discussion. After the group comes together, please appoint a woman to facilitate the questions, guide the sharing time, stay on task and give the 5-minute warning before the discussion ends. “To remember your group number, please write down your number on your brochure. At the end of your discussion time, look to the woman at your right and remember to say a prayer for her every day until we gather for the next Morning of Grace.”
- Note to facilitators: Sharing time is 20 minutes. An easy method of helping the participants to get to know each other is to limit the sharing groups to 4 ladies and to count off from 1-5 (or another number) so that there will be no more than 4 in a group. In order for the women to remember their number, have them write it on their brochure. It is imperative that the facilitators participate in the small group sharing. Please allow time in your small group for everyone to have an opportunity to share. Be aware of the 5-minute warning before sharing time ends.

10:45-10:50 *Women of Grace Updates

- Tell the women to refer to page 3 of the brochure as you share the Women of Grace Updates. You may choose to make the announcements before you begin the morning’s program (before the theme and the grace). The morning may flow easier for you and not break the flow of the morning program. Remind the women before the closing song to stop by the resource table for additional flyers and sign up opportunities.
- Announce date of the next Morning of Grace, upcoming online and local studies, conference and retreats. Women of Grace Exclusive, social media opportunities. Invite them to text and sign up for our online opportunities (such as the Daily Grace lines)
- This would be a wonderful opportunity to begin a prayer email list. Ask for a woman to volunteer to be in charge of sending out the women’s prayer requests. If you choose to begin this, have a blank roster to pass around for the women’s names and email addresses.

10:50-10:55 *A Love Opportunity and Information about the Saint’s Martyrdom

Here is some information from the Congregation for the Causes of Saints that explains the martyrdom of St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (St. Edith Stein)

...the Congregation (For the Causes of Saints) found that Stein—in religious life Sister Benedicta a Cruce ("blessed by the Cross")—gave witness to her Christian faith by words and actions while facing death, and concluded that Nazi hatred of the Catholic faith (odium fidei), in July 1942, was clear and present and the immediate cause of her being seized and killed.

Behind the Congregation's conclusion is the Catholic understanding of martyrdom. The Catechism's summary definition is this: "The Christian is not to 'be ashamed of testifying to our Lord' (2 Tim 1:8) in deed and in word. Martyrdom is the supreme witness given to the truth of the faith." The Catechism also says the martyr "bears witness to the truth of the faith and of Christian doctrine," and "endures death through an act of fortitude."(CCC 2473-74)

In her own life, Stein had come to see martyrdom as including anyone who offers up suffering in union with Christ on the Cross, and thereby shares in Christ's martyrdom. There is much evidence that she offered up her own sufferings for 20 years of her life toward this goal, and underscored what she was doing by choosing as part of her religious name the words "blessed by the Cross." Thus, it is difficult for Catholics not to see her as a martyr.

Sister Benedicta gave her life as she had long intended to, by witnessing to her faith as she witnessed to her love for her people. (ITV Staff)

Suggestions for Facilitators:

- Please pray about developing a core group of 4-6 women, “Mary’s Handmaids,” to help with the duties for the monthly Mornings of Grace. This is an essential piece for the ongoing success of Mornings of Grace in your area. “...the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few...” Matthew 9:37
- Carefully review each monthly format thoroughly as there will be additions or changes depending on the theme and grace.
- Reviewing the “8 B’s of a Facilitator” on page 26-27 in the Full of Grace Women and the Abundant Life Facilitator Guide is helpful. It is particularly important to begin and end on time. You might consider, after the program has ended, for the women to have continued conversation during clean up time. This typically is a ½ hour time period.
- You might want to send a thank you to the new ladies who attend and invite them to participate in the foundational study if they have not already done so.

Suggested Supplies:

- It is suggested that there is no charge for this Morning of Grace so to offset expenses, participants are encouraged to bring a pot luck item to share. Many are very willing to contribute specific items when they are asked. A donation jar can be placed on the resource table for monetary donations to offset expenses.
- Items that will provide a warm, welcoming setting include: sign in sheet, name tags, event brochures, flyers (Young Women of Grace and Women of Grace), and prayer intention basket with small slips of paper and pencils, holy water, statue of Blessed Virgin, open Bible, and Catechism of the Catholic Church. Have a blank roster to pass around to the women who wish to be a part of the prayer request email. A flower arrangement on the table, this could be presented to the speaker as a gift after the testimony. Flyers, brochures, etc. are available in the Facilitator Resource library: <http://www.womenofgrace.com/en-us/library/default.aspx>

Suggestions for Speaker:

- Have the speaker give a 5–7-minute testimony. Have the speaker write out the testimony as this will assist in staying within the time period. Suggest that the speaker follow the format given in the Women of Grace® Foundational Study that is “I was, Jesus did, I am,” or a personal witness on the theme or topic of the Morning of Grace. Speakers may be chosen from testimonies given during the foundational study sessions or Morning of Grace sharing times. Encourage the women to share their testimonies of spiritual, emotional or physical healing as everyone has a story to tell and this can provide an opportunity to show how God has blessed them. A suggestion for the speaker is to prepare the testimony in front of the Blessed Sacrament, either reposed or exposed.

- Have the speaker email the facilitator of the Morning of Grace a brief biography, a paragraph, to introduce her.
- In appreciation for the speaker's fiat, send a personal note or phone call to let her know that her sacred sisters are holding her in prayer. Share with her this scripture passage, to reflect upon, as she prepares her testimony.

Jeremiah 1:5-9 - "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. Before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. 'Ah, Lord God!' I said, I know not how to speak; I am too young." But the Lord answered me, Say not, "I am too young." To whomever I command you, you shall speak. Have no fear before them, because I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord. Then the Lord extended his hand and touched my mouth, saying See I place my words in your mouth!"
